

DOCTRINA LUX MENTIS general education curriculum

(as approved by the faculty on May 21, 2020)

COMMUNICATION			HOURS
Doctrina Lux Mentis I & II	2 from 2 Divisions or interdivisional	DLM 110-1, DLM 110-2, DLM 110-3, DLM 110-4 DLM 120-1, DLM 120-2, DLM 120-3, DLM 120-4	6
Second Language	1-2 from Languages:	ARB, CHN, FRE, GER, GRK, JPN, LAT, SPA 110; ARB, CHN, FRE, GER, GRK, JPN, LAT, SPA 120; ARB, CHN, FRE, GER, GRK, JPN, LAT, SPA 200+	3 - 8
Mathematics	1 from Mathematics:	MAT (students may satisfy this requirement with a college-level math course or 4/5 on Calc or Stats AP)	3
EXPLORATION			HOURS
Arts & Humanities	2 from Arts & Humanities:	Two courses from two different disciplines	6
Social Studies	2 from Social Studies:	Two courses from two different disciplines	6
Science & Mathematics	2 from Science & Mathematics:	Two courses from two different disciplines, at least one with lab	7-8
CONNECTION*			HOURS
Experiential Learning*	2 courses • Exploration courses do not count in this category. • All tags may be applied to major, minor, or elective courses. • Only the sustainability (S) and diversity (D) tags below may be applied to Exploration courses.	Arts Engagement (A): Students create, perform, respond and connect through artistic practice.	4-8
		Global Engagement (G): Students practice skills and acquire knowledge while immersed in a community beyond their own, with the goals of enhanced cultural sensitivity and broader global understanding.
		Community-Based Learning (C): Students apply skills and knowledge to field-based experiences with community partners.
		Mentored Research (R): Students, guided by a faculty member, apply skills and knowledge with the goal of making an original contribution to a discipline.
		Internships (INT 400) (I): Students connect skills and knowledge from the classroom to the world of work.
Sustainability*	1 course	Sustainability (S): Students will understand environmental sustainability and the interdependence of social and ecological communities.	0-4
Diversity*	1 course	Diversity (D): Students will develop and practice skills necessary for effective and respectful engagement within or among local, national, or global communities.	0-4
CAPSTONE			HOURS
Doctrina Lux Mentis III	1 course	DLM 3XX: Connections & Interdisciplinary Thinking. Students will explore complex issue(s) informed by perspectives, scholarship and theories drawn from multiple disciplines.	3
TOTAL			38 - 56

*Tags are denoted by single letters in italics. Sustainability and Diversity tags could be applied to Exploration, Major, Minor, or Elective courses.