

CONVOCATION CALENDAR

CentreTerm 2020

All full-time students enrolled at Centre for the full academic year are required to earn a total of 12 Convocation credits.

To receive Convocation credit, students must have their ID card scanned upon entry, be seated before the program begins, remain present throughout the full program, and scan their own ID card immediately upon exiting the event.

For the complete Convocation policy, please refer to the Student Handbook. Students may access their Convocation attendance record at any time through CentreNet.

If you have questions, please contact Lisa Curlis at 859.238.5288 or lisa.curlis@centre.edu.

- Please note that seating may be limited for some events. Students are encouraged to arrive early to ensure that they have enough time to scan their IDs and secure a seat prior to the start of the program. Admission will not be permitted once the venue reaches capacity and/or the event is underway.
- Seating capacities:
Evans Lively Room of Old Carnegie – approximately 90
Newlin Hall – orchestra 250; grand tier 1180
Weisiger Theatre – 350
Vahlkamp Theater – 170

Shanghai Ballet - "The Butterfly Lovers"*^(D)

Sunday, January 26, 2020 – 7:00pm (Newlin Hall)

For more than three decades, the Shanghai Ballet has dazzled audiences around the world with its unique repertoire of folk-infused Chinese ballet and classical Western masterworks. "The Butterfly Lovers" is a poignant love story that dates to the Tang Dynasty. Often considered the Chinese equivalent to "Romeo & Juliet," the performance features elegant choreography, graceful dancers, magnificent costumes, and a touching story of love and loss. The Shanghai Ballet is one of the world's predominant ballet companies, bringing the unique glamour of Chinese dance to the international stage.
