Bluegrass Rape Crisis Center (BRCC): 1.800.656.4673 (24/7)

Department of Public Safety: 859.236.4357 (24/7)

Title IX Coordinator: 859.238.5467 (Office)

CentreNet: "Sexual Misconduct Resources & Support"

STEP 1

GET SAFE & REACH OUT FOR SUPPORT

Once you are safe, call BRCC for support & referrals. They can meet you at an ER & accompany you to the police department. Centre Counseling at 859-238-5740, or after hours, ask for Counseling's emergency number from your Resident Assistant or DPS. You don't have to say why.

SEEK MEDICAL ATTENTION

Sexual Assault Forensic Exams (SAFE) are available at no-cost at any emergency department including Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center (EMRMC) blocks from campus. Detailed info about the SAFE exam process is available on CentreNet.

DECIDE WHAT'S RIGHT FOR YOU: PRIVACY & CONFIDENTIALITY

The chaplain, health, & counseling staff are confidential resources. They won't share identifying info. Mandatory reporters will respect your information and keep it as private as possible. They will only share your information on a limited "need-to-know" basis.

CONSIDER A REPORT

CENTRE.EDU/SMART

Report by phone, email, in-person, or using SMART. Contact Kay Drake, Title IX coordinator, at 859-238-5467 or anyone on the Title IX team, a trusted faculty member, resident assistant, or coach and tell them what happened. They are mandatory reporters & must help initiate a report.

DECIDE WHETHER TO MAKE A POLICE REPORT

We encourage you to make a report with the police and we can assist or support you. We can provide transport, escort, or information to make a police report or to help you with a restraining order.

ACCESS ACADEMIC OR RESIDENTIAL SUPPORT

Title IX is designed to ensure that no one is prevented from their education. The Title IX Coordinator can assist with interim measures such as changes in coursework, housing, or work study assignments. Centre Counseling is also a confidential way to seek accommodations.

BE GOOD TO YOURSELF

Sexual misconduct has immediate & long term effects. You're not to blame. Attend one-on-one or group counseling at Centre Counseling or at BRCC. Talk to people you trust. Let people know if you are struggling. Reach out to SPEAC.
